

BOARD NOMINATION FORM

The New Mexico Perinatal Collaborative envisions statewide health equity through the provision of safe, high-quality, and respectful reproductive, maternity, and newborn care for New Mexico families.

NMPC's Board Nomination Committee invites the self-nomination of individuals sharing this vision to serve on the board for one two-year term, with the possibility of additional terms. Please fill out the questions below, noting that some questions are optional, and return the form to jmastripolito@newmexicoperinatalcollaborative.org. Thank you for your interest!

- Name:
- How did you hear about this opportunity (self-nomination, nominated by someone else, etc.):

- Email: Telephone:
- Age Range: 18 to 34 35 to 54 55 and over Gender Identity (optional):
- What's something you've done, in or for your community OR in your own life, that you're proud of?

- Why is participating on this board worth your time and why does this work matter to you?

- How are ways that you show up for your community, family and workspaces that create change and make things better?

- Please share your vision for how the NMPC can positively impact maternity and postpartum care in NM.

BOARD NOMINATION FORM

OTHER OPTIONAL QUESTIONS

- Please either provide a copy of your CV (resume) or use the space below to describe your experience, special skills, personal, professional, or volunteer organizations which you currently or previously worked with.

- Please describe your commitment to reproductive health and cultural competence and how that has been demonstrated through your work. Optional: As a healthcare worker I demonstrate this commitment in my clinical work by...

- Please describe your experience working with different New Mexico populations or your lived experiences as someone who has been disproportionately affected by the healthcare system and how it has made you more resilient or given you the skills to serve New Mexicans.